Walking directions to the Conference room (Uranus Room)

- Follow the blue route on the map to the Building PSE-D
About a 7-10 minute walk.
- Go down the metro underpass and then take the stairs up and continue to the central esplanade. Take the corridor that goes diagonally to your right.
- At the end of the corridor where the path splits, stay on your left. Take the stairs down and after crossing the road you will see the Science Park buildings in front of you. The PSE-D is behind the AISTS Building (PSE-C).

Directions by car

To the Conference room (Uranus Room)

- Please see the P signs (blue or green) on the map :
- The easiest options is to park in front of the PSE-C building, where the AISTS office is located.
- You can also park under the Rolex Learning Centre. From Route Cantonale, take the main entrance onto Allée de Savoie and immediately turn right into the underground Rolex Centre visitors parking. Daily parking tickets are available from the main reception of the Rolex Learning Centre (1 level up).
- Once you have parked your car in the underground parking, go up one level and exit the building.
- Follow the green and then blue route on the map to the Building PSE-D
